

Outgoing Presidents Honoured at Annual General Meeting

At the Annual General Meeting on November 4, 2009, outgoing Centre president Len Lewkowict and outgoing Foundation President Allen Quallenberg were honoured for their strong commitment and many years of service to Maimonides Geriatric Centre. Len Lewkowict was described as a true visionary – a strategic forward-thinker who provides inspiration and motivation for everyone he's worked with through his many years of service to Maimonides Geriatric Centre.

Allen Quallenberg was thanked for taking Maimonides to the next level of philanthropy, by involving the corporate world and key players, like RBC-Dominion Securities.

Executive Director Barbra Gold, outgoing Centre Board President Len Lewkowict, incoming Centre Board President Larry Nachshen

Foundation Director Karen Flam, outgoing Foundation President Allen Quallenberg, past Foundation President Larry Nachshen

SPECIAL TRIBUTES AT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

At the Annual General Meeting November 4, Terri Klein and Hinda Deckelbaum were honoured for their exceptional dedication to the Maimonides Auxiliary. Tributes were given as well to Earl Pinchuk and Gary Blair of the Art for Healing Foundation, which has been instrumental in creating the beautiful art galleries that now adorn Maimonides hallways and living spaces.

Earl Pinchuk of the Art for Healing Foundation, Maimonides Director of Nursing and Clinical Services Lucie Tremblay, Gary Blair of the Art for Healing Foundation, past Centre Board President Len Lewkowict

Executive Director Barbra Gold, past Auxiliary Presidents Hinda Deckelbaum and Terri Klein, past Centre Board President Len Lewkowict